

Long Version

Peculiar People:

Charlie and Ruth Jones founded Peculiar People in 1987 in Birmingham, Alabama after working several years with the Lamb's Players Theatre in San Diego, CA. The Jones have over twenty years of experience in theatre and have traveled internationally with Peculiar People. Charlie and Ruth both write and act their own material, which encompasses a wide variety of themes and styles from sketch comedy to full-length historical dramas. The main focus of their work is a desire to renew astonishment at the power of God's Grace and recapture a lost wonder and innocence.

A few of the places Peculiar People have performed: Mt. Hermon Conference Center, Sandy Cove Conference Center, Coral Ridge Pres. (Ft. Lauderdale, FL), Park Cities Pres. (Houston, TX), Moody Bible Church (Chicago, IL), Briarwood Pres. (Birmingham, AL), Christ Community Church (Franklin, TN), Beeson Theological Seminary, Candler Seminary, Westminster Seminary, Covenant College and Seminary, Reformed Theological Seminary, LaTourneau College, Taylor University, Samford University, Montreat-Anderson College, and Kings College (Bristol, TN). They have performed for Map International, North Carolina Home Educator's Conferences and at Steve Brown's Born Free Seminars. They have toured with Michael Card's Christmas Concert and Steve Green's New Year's Eve presentation. They performed twice for Amy Grant's Loft ministry, wrote sketches for and performed at Campus Crusade's Family Life Ministries Legacy Campaign, have worked with the Baptist Sunday School Board, performed at many marriage conferences, mission conferences, pastor's conferences and church leadership retreats as well as church worship services. They have lead theatre workshops, taught home-school theatre classes and directed church drama groups. They have gone on Evangelistic Mission trips to Amsterdam, Holland and London, England and they will be involved in Italy for Christ's Year 2000 Campaign performing evangelistic street theatre in Rome in the summer of 2000.

Peculiar People consists of Charlie Jones, his wife Ruth Jones and other actors on occasion. The organization is a non-profit theatrical/ educational corporation with a local board of directors.

Short Version

Peculiar People:

Charlie & Ruth Jones are Peculiar People... in more than one way. After ten years of professional theater in Southern California, this husband/wife team landed in Greensboro, NC where they manage "Peculiar People," one of the most unique drama teams in the country. Peculiar People travels the nation providing whimsical entertainment intertwined with deep, spiritual insight. When asked what was the main message of Peculiar People, Charlie answered, "Recapturing a lost innocence..." A lost innocence about life, about God and others. Their sketch comedy and moving dramas are expertly written and delivered in the best theatrical tradition. Charlie & Ruth have 3 dogs and their favorite hobby is mall walking... go figure. For further information about Peculiar People call or write: Peculiar People • PO Box 2664 • Greensboro, NC 27402 • www.peculiarpeople.com